

Scouts go head over heels for Zorbing

Can you imagine being thrown about, turned upside down, bouncing, in water and all at high speed? Well that's exactly what the Scouts did when they went Zorbing!

Zorbing essentially involves being put inside a giant inflatable ball and rolled down a hill. Sometimes a bucket of water was thrown in for good measure. {mos_ri}

Everyone had a great time. The pictures speak for themselves: